Stay and Play

Events in partnership with Mae Murray Foundation

Our inclusive events offer a range of activities designed for children with additional needs. These partnership events must be booked through our partner Mae Murray Foundation (MMF), to book call 0300 600 1166

What is Stay and Play

At Stay and Play events, parents remain onsite but in a different room and help their child with any personal care and emergency medication needs. MMF staff provide one to one support for those who need it to take part. Council staff support those who require supervision and all staff support the function of the risk assessment to keep all children safe.

There will be an optional wellness activity for parents to take part in. Parents can also avail of the council onsite facilities such as swimming pool, health suite, or gym etc (cost incurred for each activity payable at centre reception).

All events are payable at JDLC reception the day of the event.

Community Play Days

Community Play Days are fun, inclusive events designed to bring families together through active play. These special days offer children and parents the opportunity to enjoy a wide range of activities, including ball games, team challenges, and soft play, all in a safe and welcoming environment. Guided by experienced council play leaders, each session encourages participation, while promoting the benefits of staying active.

Inclusive Cycling Hire Scheme

Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council is committed to providing opportunities to experience cycling from our inclusive cycling hub based at Joey Dunlop Leisure Centre. Our hub provides access to adapted bikes like hand-cycles, tandems and tricycles that allow them to give people with a wide variety of needs a chance to experience cycling.

Using an adapted cycle is a fantastic way for everyone to have fun, gain more independence and enjoy a sense of freedom. Whatever type of cycle, adaptation or support you need there is likely to be a solution. We encourage all-ability cycling for recreation, sport, exercise and even just for fun.
