

View this email in your browser

March 2025

Community Voices

Community Voices in Action: From Issues to Impact

The Community Development Team has launched a programme to help enhance the knowledge and skills needed to drive positive change in your community. Through these sessions, you will learn how to identify and assess local needs, advocate for change, and navigate the workings of Council and the Assembly.

Inside Council: How Decisions are Made

Thursday 3rd April, 7pm-9pm, Council Chamber, Cloonavin, Coleraine

Visit to Stormont

Monday 19th May, 11am-3pm

For full details and Eventbrite links to register click here

Irish Language Week Celebrations

Causeway Coast and Glens Irish Language Week 2025 - a Programme of Song, Dance, Music, Food and Traditional Music

Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council will celebrate Irish Language Week this year through a special programme of projects and events running 1st March to St. Patrick's Day, 17th March 2025.

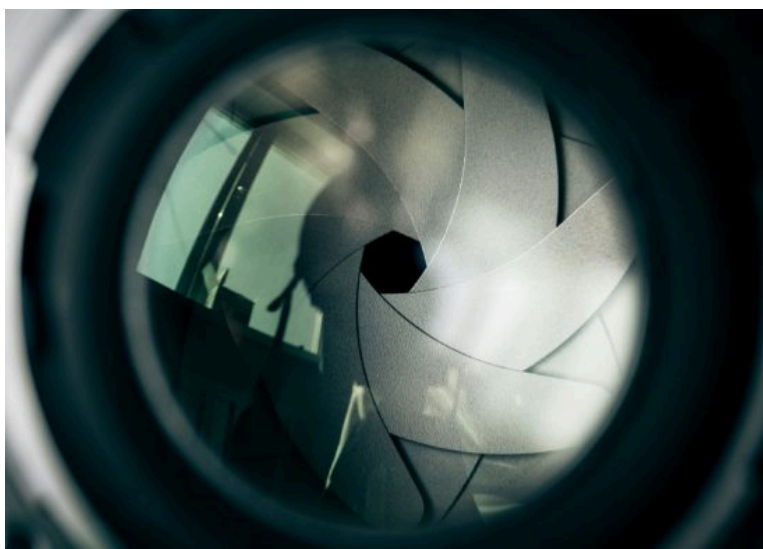

This year's programme of events will give individuals the chance to enjoy the Irish language with a programme that gives everyone the opportunity to fully embrace and immerse themselves in all that Irish Language Week has to offer.

Click here for more Information

This March at Flowerfield Arts Centre you are invited to experience the richness of Irish culture with two exciting events. Both events celebrate Irish creativity and foster shared cultural experiences, with support from The Executive Office through Causeway Coast & Glens Borough Council's Good Relations Programme.

Click here for more Information

Causeway Women's Aid Exhibition at Flowerfield

Way I See It', an inspiring new exhibition running from 8th March to 26th April 2025, developed in collaboration with Causeway & Mid Ulster Women's Aid.

Opening on International Women's Day, this compelling exhibition which will be on display in Flowerfield's Upper Gallery and is free to enter entry. It will showcase 26 unique photographic perspectives of life, captured by 26 equally unique women.

Click here for further Information

In other news...

Click here for more information

Celebrating the Rich Ulster Scots Heritage

In January, Roe Valley Arts & Cultural Centre were delighted to host an event celebrate the rich Ulster Scots heritage, supported by The Executive Office through Causeway Coast & Glens Borough Council's Good Relations Programme. This event provide a unique opportunity to engage with this vibrant cultural tradition.

Playful Museums Month

Museum Services had a busy Playful Museums month in February!

Click here for information

Crime Prevention Training

hosted free crime prevention training workshops for residents across the Borough. The workshops were facilitated by the Police Crime Prevention Academy and provided those who attended with an understanding of the theories and principles of crime prevention.

Training was delivered to explain the process of undertaking an effective home security survey and highlighted the areas to consider when investing in security products for residential settings.

It also showcased the many no/low-cost approaches to help prevent residents falling victim to opportunistic criminals.

Click here for information

Social Connections Grant Now Open for Applications

The Social Connections Grant is now open for applications of up to £500 for projects that provide opportunities for people to address loneliness and isolation and build social connections.

For Guidance Notes and how to apply follow this link

Causeway
Coast & Glens
Borough Council

Our mailing address is: community.development@causewaycoastandglens.gov.uk

Want to change how you receive these emails?

You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list.

Community Development Section

Leisure & Development Directorate

Coleraine Office

028 7034 7044

You are receiving this email because your group registered on the Community and Voluntary Register, within Community & Culture Unit of Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council. The purpose is to provide your organisation with any relevant information, including Council, cultural and heritage activities, funding opportunities (internal and external) and Council wide consultations. Council will only release personal data with consent or where required under legislation. You can remove or update your details at any time, please email; community.development@causewaycoastandglens.gov.uk

Further information about your rights, how to contact the Data Protection Officer and how long information is held or how we process any payments made can be found at: <https://www.causewaycoastandglens.gov.uk/footer-information/privacy-statement>

why did I get this? unsubscribe from this list update subscription preferences

Causeway Coast and Glens BC · 66 portstewart Road · Coleraine, BT52 1EY · United Kingdom

