Limavady Football Down the Years

Causeway Museum Service

1 September - 12 October

A must-see for local sports enthusiasts and football fans, this exhibition curated by the Museums Service, features a selection of photographs from Limavady author, Gerry Robinson's recent book by the same title. Gerry developed this book to raise funds after hearing of a local woman requiring experimental treatment for cancer. This free exhibition will display photographs of football players and teams in the Limavady area.

Athrú

Stuart Quigley

7 September - 27 October

Exhibition Launch: Thursday 5 September at 7pm

Free Admission | All welcome

Based in Derry, Irish artist Stuart Quigley captures the fleeting nature of light and form in his series "Athru" (meaning "change"). Influenced by the landscapes of Cumbria and the Isle of Skye, Stuart uses oils and pastels on large canvases to explore the transience of experience.

'I like to think of a painting as a 'repository of time'. It is a document of the actions and experiences of the process of making it. It is also a record of my existence for that period of time; that relationship means we are forever connected.'

Painting Masterclass: Stuart is providing a Landscape Painting Masterclass on Saturday 28 September from 10am-3pm. Please visit Page 20 for more information

➤ “An inspiring exhibition!”

Limavady Art Group | Dungiven Regeneration Club

8 November – 21 December

Exhibition Launch: Friday 8 November at 3pm |

Free Admission | All welcome

The Limavady Art Group continues to impress with their remarkable diversity in styles, themes, and media. Their latest exhibit in our Keady Gallery showcases an eclectic mix that is both captivating and inspirational. We are also delighted to present artwork by the Dungiven Regeneration Club for the first time in our Brighter Gallery. Both shows present the perfect opportunity to support local artists and purchase unique artworks as unforgettable Christmas gifts.

Events

Beth Nielsen Chapman

Friday 6 September | 7.30pm (Doors 7pm)

Tickets £24 + Online Booking Fee

This event is in our auditorium with unreserved tiered seating.

We're delighted to welcome internationally acclaimed artist Beth Nielsen Chapman back to Limavady. The American singer-songwriter has released fifteen albums and achieved seven number-one hits. Her songs have been recorded by artists like Elton John and Willie Nelson, and featured in film and TV. Chapman's This Kiss, sung by Faith Hill, was ASCAP's 1999 Song of the Year and earned her a Grammy nomination. She received another Grammy nod in 2012 for The Mighty Sky. Nashville NAMMY's 1999 Songwriter of the Year, Chapman was inducted into the Songwriters' Hall of Fame in 2016.

A cancer and brain tumour survivor, she draws from direct experience in her inspiring presentations about the fascinating dance between cognition, healing and the creative flow. Her songs take you on a journey through the depth, humour, and wonder of life. This promises to be a very special evening.

An exploration of how and why Seamus Heaney uses visual art in his poems and essays | A Talk by poet and artist John Brown

Thursday 19 September | 7pm (Doors 6.30pm)

Tickets £5

Why and how do writers use art? How do they use paintings, sculptures and photographs in poems and texts? This talk by artist and writer John Brown invites you to ask questions about how writers in general, and Seamus Heaney in particular, use art to frame how they feel and think about the world. The talk showcases and assembles a wealth of images drawn from paintings, sculptures and photos to explore how and why these inspired Seamus Heaney's texts.

➤ “The show was excellent. Great musicians, polished performers and involved the audience.”
