1. APOLOGIES

An apology was recorded for Councillors C McShane and McCorkell.

2. CONDOLENCES AND TRIBUTES ON THE PASSING OF ALDERMAN JOHN FINLAY

The Mayor addressed Council:

Sadly this is the first meeting since my friend and colleague Alderman Finlay passed away yesterday morning. There is not a lot more I can say about Alderman Finlay than has been said in the last 24 hours. We all know John was a Christian. He had a strong Christian faith which carried him through the illness he has had. John was in absolutely no doubt about where he was going. He often said he was not a good example of a Christian but he was glad that Christ died on the cross to take away his all his sin. No doubt by now John has met his Saviour and has received his well done.

He was a great family man and my thoughts are with Linda, Naomi and Rebekah. We cannot even imagine what they are going through. John was only 62 years of age, still a young man. They had many plans for years to come, only 3 weeks ago speaking of wishing to have a weekend away to Newcastle. Our thoughts and prayers are especially with the family at this time.

John was a very faithful man. He was faithful to all the different things he was involved in including his Party, church and loyal orders. He was very faithful in protecting the unborn child. John did not worry about what other people thought of his opinions and he stood over them.

Lastly he was a friend and was a good friend to me. John could have rung you several times during the day and at night. Many times over Johns illness you could have got a call at 11 or 12 or a beep on the many WhatsApp groups we were both in. I have many fantastic memories of John and I am sure we will be talking about John for many years to come, especially all those who knew him best, Facebook refers to the 'Finlayisms'. There is a few members of our Party who I will allow to speak in the first instance and afterwards those who wish to join in a tribute may do so.

Councillor McAuley addressed Council:

Thanks Mayor, where do you start to talk about John Finlay? Despite knowing that this day was inevitable like many others I am heartbroken. John was dedicated to the loyal orders in Dunloy, the DUP and his Christian faith. He had a passion and determination to put the people of Ballymoney first. John was a one off in every sense of the word and one of a kind with a particular way of doing things - from how he answered the phone to how he quickly ended the calls promptly once he had finished what he wanted to say. He rang and messaged at all times of the day and at night and expected an instant reply. John liked nothing more than a leaflet drop as long as his face and telephone number was on it. If he had ordered too many leaflets you knew you would get a phone call to go back to use up the leaflets with some homes getting another one. He was dedicated to constituents and the constituency work; he lived and breathed his political Party and the Council and we will never have another public representative like him. In his own words after receiving his sad news he said that if he was cut in two he would bleed DUP and even when he disagreed with the party he gave it his full support.

On a personal note I have known John for twenty years and over past four years I really got to know him when working with Mervyn Storey and Ian Paisley. There was not a day we were not in contact discussing and debating issues including many heated exchanges day and night. He often gave off but friendship never wavered. Since yesterday morning I have literally spent hours with the family and telling stories and thankfully we can laugh as it maybe makes it a bit easier. His family and I spoke of his dedication to the Planning Committee and site meetings and to seeing to issues around streetlighting, grass cutting and potholes, commenting that these often took precedence to family matters, such was his dedication to the Chamber and the people. Life will never be the same again as we say good bye to a fellow councillor, I say goodbye to a work colleague and close friend.

My loss is nothing compared that of his wife Linda, his daughters Naomi and Rebekah and his extended family. John my friend as I sit beside this empty seat as reality sets in I can safely say on behalf of the Party group that John Finlay will never be forgotten and missed more than any of us ever imagined.

 Alderman Knight-McQuillan joined the meeting at 7.10 pm

Alderman McLean addressed Council:

Probably one of the reasons I am sitting in this chair is because of John Finlay. Some eleven years ago I was approached by Mervyn Storey and John Finlay about becoming a Councillor. John told me you may have a meeting or two a month, he would have led you up the garden path in that respect. It has been my honour to serve with him. At Elections John paced up and down the floor even though the rest of us felt sure he would secure his seat he wondered if that would be the case. After the recent assembly elections when John and I travelled together we spoke amongst other things of his illness, how the Party was going and the way forward. He also spoke of his disappointment when Mervyn Storey failed to get elected and felt sure that God would have purpose in that situation.

John loved to get out and preach the gospel at orange services, gospel missions, and whilst talking to constituents. When constituent issues arose John often had them sorted before they reached the Councillor representing the area and it was no time to a photo appeared on Facebook of John sharing the outcome. He loved getting out and about and meeting people and helping where he could especially Housing benefit applications.

His love for his wife and his girls was clear to see. A few weeks ago we had a BBQ for him, he was in good form and was talking about things he could do in the future. The one thing which kept him going was making the 12th July in Bushmills. He bought a scooter and made it on the day. Coming up to next year's Council election it will not be the same without John being there. I would like to pass on my condolences in a public forum to his wife and the girls. Tomorrow will be a tough day for them but I am sure they would value the support of any members who can come along.

* Councillor Quigley joined the meeting at 7.15 pm

Councillor McQuillan addressed Council:

I have been close friends with John since 1988 regardless of whether or not I was in the DUP and hold him in high regard. He was proud to represent Ballymoney on Ballymoney Borough Council and Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council. He was especially proud of his family and you were not long in his company to he started to speak about his wife and daughters. His wife Linda provided him with great support and was always by his side. It is down to us to support the family in the next weeks.

There will never be another John Finlay, he had that many characters and there are many more stories to tell. I would publicly like to extend my condolences to Linda, Naomi and Rebekah and hope God is with them over the next few weeks.

Alderman S McKillop addressed Council:

John's contribution to his beloved Party, Council and his constituents was immense. I feel extremely saddened that he is gone from our lives. A void has been left that will be hard to fill. They say time is a healer and I know John would want us to get on with the job in hand, which I will do, but it will be hard to do so without him. John devoted his life to caring for and strengthening his community. He worked tirelessly for the people. This is his legacy and I feel it important that the good work that he did is acknowledged in this chamber tonight. It has to be said that John was an extremely humorous person. He certainly made my job less taxing. Anyone that can bring a smile to my face, even laughter during the Planning Committee is in my mind not only gifted but possesses very unique characteristics, that was John Finlay. I will sorely miss his banter and humour.

My final thoughts and prayers are with members, colleagues, John's friends, his extended family, his caring and devoted wife Linda, and 'his girls' Rebecca and Naomi, who were always at the forefront of his mind. May God Bless and comfort them in the difficult days and times ahead. Thank you, Mayor, for allowing me to speak.'

Alderman Fielding addressed Council:

Thanks to Mr Mayor for the tribute and the video tribute. I have known John for up to 20 years. Nobody was in any doubt about what John stood for. His Christian faith guided his beliefs. A long standing member of the Party John was dedicated to servicing his constituents. Committed and stalwart has been used to describe his commitment to the DUP. You always knew that John would be at any event the Party held. Over and above his own election He gave 100% to every election the Party contested and he took an interest not only in North Antrim but across NI. I worked in a constituency office in the neighbouring constituency but John would often ring during elections to find out how the canvas was progressing and what response was like around the doors. When I stood in a by- election in 2006 John offered and helped to give leaflets for me outside the polling station in Portrush. In Council John was diligent at attending meetings and I would draw particular attention to the Planning Committee which he was on since the commencement of this Council and attended the last Committee meeting in June . It was evident that he enjoyed this Committee and gave significant contribution to the debates and got on well with Councillors across the Chamber.

John will be missed most by those closest to him, his wife Linda and daughters Naomi and Rebekah and they can be assured of our thoughts and prayers, and to the people of Ballymoney and wider North Antrim community. Thanks for letting me speak.

Councillor MA McKillop addressed Council:

On behalf of the SDLP I extend my deepest condolences to the family, his wife Linda and daughters Naomi and Rebekah. John was an extremely dedicated Councillor and a man of great faith. I will never forget the kindness shown by him to me when we both had the privilege of jointly representing Council at Somme. I was delighted that we were both able to bring a motion to Council regarding the protection of the unborn. John will be sadly missed.'

Councillor Peacock addressed Council:

It is with deep genuine sadness and regret that we learned of the passing of John Finlay a fellow DEA Councillor of mine in the Ballymoney area. On behalf of Sinn Fein I wish to express condolences to his DUP colleagues, family and friends. There is no doubt in this Chamber that John was a dedicated, hardworking, kind and respectful individual. Our thoughts are with his wife and daughters and family circle and his DUP colleagues at this time. May he Rest in Peace.

Alderman McKeown addressed Council:

I have been nominated to speak on behalf of the Ulster Unionist Party as the member who has known John the longest. I wish to extend our sympathy to his wife, daughters, sister and wider family.

We first met when he got elected to Council many years ago and it became clear he was passionate about Council work which John never shied away from. He made it clear to me once after a heated debate in the Chamber that we were still friends outside of the Chamber. He had a gift of good sense humour. Having occupied the same seat in the chamber for many years it is sad to look at the end of the row and know that he will no longer be there. We all have some very fond memories and he will be badly missed.

Councillor McCandless addressed Council:

One always knew when they stood with John. He was such a well-known and popular figure within politics and it is the case of gone but not forgotten. In the past few years we realised we had friends and acquaintances in the faith mission. I asked John recently what you like me to pray for and he said pray for Linda and my daughters. Those of us who have had bereavements know what pain the family are going through. I would like to lift Linda, Naomi and Rebekah up in pray at this time and in the next few days and months to come.

Councillor Mulholland addressed Council:

I was saddened to hear about the passing of John Finlay. I found him to be approachable and would never pass you without saying hello. We met at various social functions before I was elected and he always had a smile and time for a chat. May I extend my condolences to Linda and his daughters, the extended family and the DUP at this time.

Councillor McCaw addressed Council:

On behalf of Alliance Party I pay tribute to John who was a true gentleman on every dealing I had with him. He was diligent public servant a man of strong faith and conviction and I will always remember he was the first person to say hello to me when I joined the Council in 2018. I will never forget Johns kindness something which been spoken of by others this evening. It is devastating to have lost him, he will be fondly remembered by us all. Our sympathy is extended to the Mayor, Party colleagues, his friends and family at this time.

The Mayor added, 'such was the kindness of John Finlay that 10 percent of earnings monthly was distributed to people in need. That is the kindness of John Finlay'.

Councillor Quigley addressed Council:

I wish to extend my condolences to the DUP and to Linda and those lovely girls. I was saddened to hear what he had to endure. He was a man of great faith and a generous spirit both inside and outside of the Council Chamber and everyone knew that.

Councillor Nicholl addressed Council:

I have been on the Planning Committee with John Finlay since inception of Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council and often being on the Planning Committee is not easy and John had a real commitment to the work of the committee. I had a good rapport with John and there were many laughs. He was very much his own man and, said things as they were from his heart. I extend my heartfelt sympathy to his wife Linda and daughters Naomi and Rebekah.

Despite the political divide John was understanding and respectful and worked for the greater good of constituents. He was a character and there will only be one John Finlay and I have fond memories of him.'

Alderman Boyle addressed Council:

I would like to echo my sympathy to the family Party and friends of John Finlay. John's commitment to the Planning Committee was obvious and never in question and he was not afraid to ask questions which led to useful debate. He bore his ill health with great dignity, continuing to attend meetings which gave us an opportunity to acknowledge him in difficult circumstances. It was moving to see his DUP colleagues allow him to present the Chain of Office to the incoming Mayor at the recent Annual Meeting. My thoughts are with the family at this time.

Councillor P McShane addressed Council:

I have never seen in this Chamber such heartfelt sympathy, particularly from John's colleagues in the DUP with the most sincere, deepest and warmest expressions of sympathy over the man's passing. To his Party colleagues I extend my heartfelt sympathy. People in my community will look at John and have memories and some of them will be different but I can rest assured that when I met John for the first time I had different opinions and have got to know a different side to John Finlay, he was a sincere and honest man. To his family in particular my deepest sympathy and with the difficult journey ahead I hope they can find strength from the memories as they go forward.

Councillor Watton addressed Council:

Where do you start, I liked John Finlay and he and I never had a cross word. You don't like everyone in politics – it is impossible but he and I got on well. He was an honest and straight man and I often thought he was MLA material. He was a staunch Unionist and Loyalist a man of strong faith and devotion to loyal orders. He also had a wicked sense of humour and I enjoyed being in his company. His passing is a loss to the DUP and a bigger loss to his family and my thoughts are with his wife Linda his two daughters and wider family circle. The Council has lost a very good man.

The Chief Executive addressed Council:

On behalf of Council staff we express our sincere condolences to the family and friends of Alderman John Finlay. It was a pleasure and privilege to serve under him as presiding Councillor of the Shadow Council and active member of Group Leaders Forum and a Ballymoney Councillor. Following a robust exchange with a Council Officer John would say 'I hope I was not too hard on you.

He will be forever remembered for the underlying kindness already mentioned. It was remarkable how he worked for the borough right up to his final weeks. His larger than life personality and presence will be genuinely missed by Council employees.

Councillor Peacock expressed disappointment the Mayor had declined her request to mark the achievement with a Mayor Reception. She stated similar achievements for the Derry footballers in reaching the Semi Final and Eoghan Rua who won the All Ireland Junior Club Championship had been met with the same refusal. Councillor Peacock stated she hoped the Mayor would reconsider this position moving forward and would choose to recognise the achievements of all sports people regardless of their choice of sport.

Councillor P McShane stated the Mayor should recognise all sporting achievements from all communities within the Causeway Coast and Glens Borough.

During Councillor P McShane's comments he requested for comments from other Members to stop. Councillor Quigley called Point of Order requesting that the Mayor ask other Elected Members to stop speaking. The Mayor ruled that Councillor P McShane could continue speaking.

12. ENVIRONMENTAL SERVICES REPORT – TENDER FOR PROVISION OF FUEL STAMPS SAVING SCHEME

Report, previously circulated, presented by the Director of Environmental Services.

Purpose of Report

The purpose of this report is to seek Council approval to tender for a service provider to fully administer a Fuel Stamp Saving Scheme on behalf of Council.

Background

Fuel stamp schemes were introduced by legacy Councils in response to the high prevalence of fuel poverty and provide householders with a means to save on a regular basis and budget towards the cost of their fuel payments. Further to committee report ES170801 and CM170822 members will be aware that following a previous tendering exercise Limavady Community Development Initiative (LCDI) were awarded the contract to rebrand, relaunch and fully administer a fuel stamp saving scheme across the Borough.

The current contract with LCDI is due to end in October 2022 and there is a need to carry out a further tendering exercise to appoint a scheme administrator under a new contract.

As the total value of the contract, as calculated over its whole life (including options), is anticipated to exceed £30,001 Council approval is required to commence the procurement process.

Recommendation

It is recommended that Council authorise the commencement of the procurement process to tender for a service provider to fully administer a Fuel Stamp Saving Scheme on behalf of Council.

In response to questions, the Director of Environmental Services confirmed a report was presented to the Environmental Services Committee in February 2022 highlighting the suppliers involved in the Fuel Stamp Scheme and the internet was not required to avail of the Scheme. It was also confirmed that when the new tender is issued the Fuel Stamp Scheme will be relaunched and advertised.

Proposed by Councillor Hunter
Seconded by Councillor McQuillan and

RESOLVED - that Council authorise the commencement of the procurement process to tender for a service provider to fully administer a Fuel Stamp Saving Scheme on behalf of Council.

13.1 EXTRAORDINARY AUDIT REPORT PROPOSED APPROACH AND ACTION PLAN

Report, previously circulated, presented by the Director of Environmental Services.

Purpose of Report

The report requires Council consider and approve the proposed Action Plan to address the recommendations as contained within the Extraordinary Audit Report and to consider a number of proposals associated with the outcome of the report.

Background

On 30 November, the Minister for Communities directed the Local Government Auditor to hold an extraordinary audit of Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council concentrating on land disposals and easements and related asset management policies and procedures.

On 7 July 2022 the Local Government Auditor published a report summarising the findings of an extraordinary audit of Causeway Coast and Glens Borough Council, it details the findings and recommendations emanating from the audit of land disposals and easements since the Council was formed in April 2015.

At the Special Council Meeting held on 26 July 2022 the Council resolved to:

“That this Council accepts the findings contained within the extraordinary audit. That this Council immediately moves to implement all eight recommendations contained within the Extraordinary Audit. That the Ministerial letter of the 7 July 2022 be responded to confirming all the above and an action plan be completed by the 8 August 2022 that shows how the Auditor's recommendations will be fully implemented by 30 December 2022.

We note the established mechanism for investigating questions of discipline raised in connection with a Chief Executive of a local authority in Northern Ireland. This mechanism is specified in the 1996 Agreement on Discipline, Capability and Redundancy of the Joint Negotiating Committee for Clerks/Chief Executives to Local Authorities in Northern Ireland.

Paragraphs 3 to 11 of that agreement establish the process to be followed and we call on Council to incorporate this approach as part of its response to Recommendations 6 and 7, whilst also recognising that distinct disciplinary processes may exist for other local government employees.

We also request that Council seek regular and detailed cooperation with the Local Government Staff Commission of Northern Ireland in respect of any relevant matters arising from the Audit Report recommendations and their implementation.”

Annex A of the Extraordinary Audit Report lists eight recommendations to be addressed and implemented by Council by 30th December 2022. This report lists steps proposed to address these recommendations, identifies officers to lead on the implementation of each recommendation and a draft Action Plan, attached as Appendix A, for consideration by Council and forwarding to the Department for Communities when approved.

Proposals

Due to the significance and urgency of the matter consideration is given to holding an additional Council meeting each month to deal with matters requiring Council approval as the action plan is implemented. Suggested dates are: Monday 19 September, Monday 17 October, Monday 14 or 21 November and 19 December, at 7.00pm.

Council will write to DfC and request the Department appoint a key point of contact to advise and guide Council in relation to the fine detail for the implementation of recommendations as listed within the Report.
