Dear Stakeholder,

NI EXECUTIVE'S RESPONSE TO THE COVID-19 INQUIRY MODULE 2 REPORT

The UK Covid-19 Inquiry is an independent public inquiry into the UK's response to and the impact of the Covid-19 pandemic. The Inquiry, chaired by Baroness Heather Hallett, was launched in July 2022.

Module 1

At its meeting on 15 January 2026, the Northern Ireland Executive approved publication of its third Response to the UK Covid Inquiry Module 1 Report - Executive Response to the COVID-19 Module 1 Report. (Executive 3rd Response to the Covid-19 Module 1 Report January 2026 | The Executive Office).

Work is ongoing to implement the Module 1 recommendations. We remain committed to ensuring that these actions align with the needs and expectations of all stakeholders and recognise the valuable role you continue to play in this process

As you may be aware, the UK Covid-19 Inquiry published its second report, Module 2 Module 2, 2A, 2B, 2C Report: Core decision-making and political governance on 20 November 2025. This report covers the period from the emergence of Covid-19 in January 2020, until the final restrictions were lifted in May 2022.

We are now seeking your views on the implementation of the Module 2 recommendations. A series of engagement sessions—both in-person and online—has been arranged. Details (subject to change) are as follows:

- Online – 16th February 2026 at 3pm (TEAMS)
- Online – 19th February 2026 at 3pm (TEAMS)
- In-person – Castle Buildings, Stormont Estate – 23rd February 2026 at 11am
- In-person – Castle Buildings, Stormont Estate – 27th February 2026 at 10am

If you wish to attend any session, please send your name, email address and name of organisation to the email address Covid.inquiry@executiveoffice-ni.gov.uk, and indicate which session you would like to join. Please also advise us of any accessibility requirements.

Space at the in-person sessions is limited and places will be allocated on a first-come, first-served basis. Online sessions will be hosted via Microsoft Teams, and joining details will be issued once expressions of interest are received.

We also welcome written feedback. Submissions should be emailed to Covid.inquiry@executiveoffice-ni.gov.uk by 23 March 2026, to allow us to consider your views as part of the Executive's ongoing work to address the Module 2 recommendations.

Your participation is an important part of this process. Thank you in advance for your time and input. If you would like to discuss any aspect further, please do not hesitate to contact this office.

Together, we can ensure that the Inquiry's recommendations are implemented effectively and in a way that benefits all stakeholders.

Yours sincerely,

JANE HOLMES
